

MASTER SERVICES AGREEMENT

Definitions

CDS agrees to provide services (“Services”) and final work product (“Product”) as defined as defined in Exhibit A also referred to as “Statement(s) of Work & Payment Schedule” (or “Exhibit A”), attached to this Agreement.

1. Intellectual Property:

1.1 Customer Content Materials: Customer represents and warrants to CDS that Customer owns the appropriate rights, title or interest in any Customer-provided materials or content (the “Customer Content”) and that Customer has the legal right to deliver and grant to CDS the right to use the Customer Content as specified in this Agreement. Customer hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless CDS from any and all third party claims, demands or causes of action alleging that CDS's possession or use of the Customer Content in accordance with the terms of this Agreement infringes on any rights of such third party in the Customer Content.

This indemnity shall not extend to such modifications as may be made by CDS to the Customer Content or additions contributed to the Customer Content by CDS in the course of providing its Services to Customer under this Agreement. Title to the Customer Content shall remain with Customer.

1.2 Third Party Licenses: All software, graphics or other proprietary products owned by third parties necessary to perform the Services or to deliver the Product shall be specified in the SOWs. Unless otherwise specified herein or in the SOWs, CDS shall be responsible for negotiating and obtaining all necessary licenses from such third parties, and the cost thereof shall be treated as an out-of-pocket cost to be reimbursed by Customer. Should any project require the purchase of such items, if the purchase cost is either paid by the Customer or fully reimbursed to CDS, then the Customer shall own the items upon completion of the project.

1.3 CDS Materials: All trademarks, service marks, graphics, software, design, materials, products, website content, concepts, ideas, techniques and know-how (including, but not limited to, computer software, code or other proprietary products owned or developed by CDS prior to the entering into of this Agreement shall be and shall remain the property of CDS. To the extent necessary to run, demonstrate or use the Services, CDS shall provide to Customer a perpetual, non-exclusive, non-transferable license at no additional cost or fee to be granted after Customer has made payment for all undisputed outstanding invoices. CDS shall have the right to terminate the license granted hereunder upon written notice to Customer if Customer fails to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, failure to pay for the Services rendered.

1.4 Custom Deliverables: All trademarks, service marks, graphics, design, materials, products or web site content that are specified in the SOWs to be custom developed by CDS specifically for the Customer as part of the Services or the Product (the “Custom Deliverables”), shall be the property of Customer, and all title and interest therein shall vest in the Customer, after Customer has made full payment for any and all outstanding invoices related to the Custom Deliverables.

Custom Deliverables shall not include work product, software routines, database processes or compilations or web site routines developed by CDS which are of a general or generic nature and are used or usable by CDS in other applications where Customer Content is not used and the rights of the Customer in the Custom Deliverables are not compromised. CDS will assign, after payment in full of all undisputed outstanding invoices owed by Customer, any and all rights, title and interest, including, but not limited to, patents, copyrights, trade secrets and other proprietary rights to the Custom Deliverables developed in connection with the performance of this Agreement to Customer.

If requested, CDS shall execute and deliver any additional documents or instruments to give effect to such assignment of rights described in this section. In the event that Customer fails to pay all outstanding and undisputed invoices within a period of 90 days from original due date, then CDS will have the right to reuse and resell any work product. This will not relieve Customer of its obligation to pay any and all outstanding amounts owed. If Customer retires all amounts owed, then CDS will deliver any deliverables still outstanding.

1.5 Further Assurances: CDS warrants and represents that it will, at the time of delivery, have the right to transfer ownership to the Customer of the Custom Deliverables. CDS agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Customer from and against any third party claims, demands or causes of action alleging that Customer’s possession or use of the Custom Deliverables in accordance with the terms of this Agreement infringes any copyright or trademark rights of such third party in the Custom Deliverables. This indemnity shall not extend to such modifications as may be made to the Custom Deliverables by Customer, or any party other than CDS, unless CDS authorizes such modifications in advance and in writing.

1.6 No Infringement: Each party hereto represents and warrants that it will not knowingly or intentionally infringe upon any patents, copyrights, or other intellectual property rights of any third party, nor has any claim (whether or not embodied in an action, past or present) of such infringement been threatened or asserted, nor is such a claim pending against either party.

1.7 Rights retained: Each party shall retain all right, title and interest in and to its respective trademarks, trade names, service marks, logos, copyrights and other intellectual property (the "Marks"). Neither party shall use the Marks of the other party in any way, including without limitation, for marketing or promotional purposes, without prior written approval of the other party. However, CDS may showcase Products in presentations, case studies, or proposals, may reference the services provided for Customer, and place attribution language on any website designed for Customer without violating this section. The parties will also work together to issue a joint press release, where appropriate.

2. Warranty

CDS warrants the Services and Product (including the Custom Deliverables, if any) to be free and clear of defects in material and workmanship for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of delivery of the Services and Product to Customer.

Any defects found within such thirty (30) day period shall be reported to CDS in writing and CDS shall use its best efforts to cure such defect in a timely manner. This warranty does not apply if the Product is modified by any person other than CDS, nor to problems caused by defects or failures of hardware or software not provided by CDS, nor to defects caused by negligence of Customer or any other person except CDS. There are no other representations or warranties, express or implied, written or oral, made by CDS with respect to the Product.

3. Damages

Neither party shall be obligated or responsible to the other for any special, indirect, incidental, consequential, punitive or exemplary, or bad faith contract damages arising hereunder, even if advised of the possibility thereof. The rights and remedies, including indemnification, specified in this Agreement constitute the parties' sole rights and remedies. In no event shall the total liability of CDS to Customer under this Agreement exceed the total fees to be paid to CDS by Customer under this Agreement.

4. Non-Solicitation

Both parties agree that, neither party shall solicit or hire any employee or contractor of the other party as an employee, consultant, partner, business associate or in any indirect capacity, except with prior written consent.

5. Assignment

No party shall assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the other parties, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. CDS may subcontract with third parties but such action shall not relieve CDS of any of its obligations hereunder.

6. Choice of Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Utah in the United States without reference to its conflicts of laws. Each party submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Utah County, Utah and expressly waives any and all rights to bring any action in or before any other court. Each of the parties expressly waives any and all objections such party may have to venue, including, without limitation, the inconvenience of such forum, in any of such courts.

7. Dispute Resolution

In the event that at any time during the term of this Agreement a disagreement, dispute, controversy or a claim should arise out of, or relating to, the interpretation or performance under this Agreement or the breach or invalidity thereof, the parties will attempt in good faith to resolve their differences. If the parties are unable to resolve their differences, any dispute which is not resolved shall be referred to the court(s) listed above. Each party shall pay the fees of its respective attorneys, the expenses of its witnesses and any other expenses connected with presenting its claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party shall be entitled to elect to seek injunctive or other equitable relief in a court of proper jurisdiction to enforce its Intellectual Property rights. (1) The provisions contained in this Article 7. shall survive the termination and/or expiration of this Agreement. (2) Intellectual Property Matters. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all issues related to Intellectual Property Rights hereunder shall be settled in a court of competent jurisdiction.

8. Confidentiality

Each party proposes to disclose certain trade secrets, confidential and proprietary information (the "Confidential Information") to the other party. Confidential Information shall include all data, materials, client lists and names, products, development practices, technology, computer programs, specifications, manuals, business plans, software, marketing plans, business plans, employee information, financial information, and other information that a reasonable person working within the industry would deem sensitive, proprietary, or confidential in nature that is disclosed or submitted, orally, in writing, or by any other media, by one party to the other.

Nothing herein shall require either party to disclose any of its information except as may be required to complete the project or Services covered under this Agreement. Each party agrees that the Confidential Information is to be considered confidential and proprietary to the party receiving such Confidential Information and that party shall hold the same in confidence, shall not use the Confidential Information other than for the purposes of this Agreement, and shall disclose it only to its officers, directors, or employees with a specific need to know.

Neither party will disclose, publish or otherwise reveal any of the Confidential Information received from the other to any third party whatsoever except with the specific prior written authorization of the party owning such Confidential Information.

9. Time is of the Essence

Time is of the essence of this Agreement. Failure of the Customer to meet delivery deadlines set forth on the project timeline for Customer Content or for interim phase approval will cause all other specified dates and deadlines on the project timeline to be pushed back or adjusted by an equivalent number of days. If any delay in performance is due to default of CDS, Customer's payment obligation shall be suspended for such time as CDS shall fail to meet a milestone completion date under the project timeline in the Statement of Work. Customer's payment obligation shall not resume until such time as CDS has cured this default. Customer shall notify CDS by e-mail or other writing of any suspension in payment, and CDS shall have ten (10) business days to cure any such default and to comply with the project timeline.

If such default by CDS continues for an additional fifteen (15) days after notice by Customer and CDS has not commenced cure or provided Customer written explanation of good cause why such default cannot be timely cured, Customer shall have the right, fifteen (15) days after notice to CDS and failure to cure by CDS, to terminate this Agreement and hire another vendor for development of the Product.

In this event, CDS will provide all materials and consultation, at CDS's expense, to facilitate a smooth transition (including, without limitation, provision of all Product produced through the termination date and consultancy for such transition) to such vendor, which shall be completed within 15 days after termination. In the event of such termination, Customer shall only pay CDS for out of pocket expenses and for work successfully performed but not paid for since the last successfully completed milestone.

10. Customer Response Times

CDS has based its timelines and cost estimates on feedback times from the Customer. If these are not met, significant impact on both the project timelines and costs could occur. Unless otherwise agreed in writing (e.g. in an applicable SOW), Customer shall have a 2-business day window to provide verbal and/or written feedback on any interim phase materials delivered by CDS for review and comment, unless specified otherwise in the SOWs. After the 2-day window, all deliverables will be considered accepted unless written notice of deficiency has been presented to CDS.

If Customer has not provided written feedback during the review window, CDS may suspend all work on the project and notify Customer via email that the period for feedback has elapsed and any project deadlines or milestones affected by the delay will be extended by the number of days of the delay. If five (5) working days have elapsed without feedback from Customer, MDS may re-assign its personnel and project resources to other projects and CDS may take up to ten (10) working days to re-build the project team after Customer provides feedback. The restructured team may or may not be composed of the members of the original team.

If a project is put “on hold” at the Customer’s request for fifteen (15) days or more, CDS may invoice Customer for all work performed up to that point. Customer agrees to notify CDS as soon as possible when the project is to be re-started so that a project team may be assembled. This may take up to ten (10) working days depending on CDS’s workload. Projects may not be put on hold for more than thirty (30) days. On the 31st day, the project will be deemed terminated for the convenience of the Customer and CDS will invoice Customer for the projected work and deliverables through the effective date of termination (or the 31st day whichever is later) as set forth in the project plan or in the project charter document. This invoice will be due and payable upon receipt.

11. Force Majeure

Neither party shall be liable to the other, nor shall any remedy be extended, for any failure of performance due to causes beyond that party’s reasonable control, including but not limited to: acts of God, fire, explosion, lightening, flood, earthquake, tornado, storms, meteorological, hydrological or geological conditions or other catastrophes caused thereby; any law, order, regulation, direction, action, or request of any governmental or regulatory entity or agency, or any civil or military authority; emergencies; civil unrest, insurrections, riots, wars; unavailability of rightsofway, third party services or materials; or strikes, lockouts, work stoppages, labor shortages or other labor difficulties; or transmission failures, telecommunication line breaks or outages, or failure of the Internet provided that the delayed party: (a) gives the other party prompt notice of such cause, and (b), uses its reasonable commercial efforts to correct promptly such failure or delay in performance.

12. Notices

All notices required to be given under the terms of this Agreement shall be in writing and may be effected by delivering the same or mailing the same by pre-paid registered mail or sending the same by facsimile. Such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the day on which it was delivered, or if mailed, on the 5th business day following the date on which it was mailed, or if sent by facsimile, on the next business day following the day on which was sent.

13. Legal Fees

In the event either party may require the services of an attorney in order to enforce any of their rights hereunder, the defaulting or breaching party shall, without limitation, be liable to the non-defaulting or non-breaching party for such party's reasonable attorney fees, upon judgement.

14. Payment Terms

Amounts due to CDS shall be due and payable in full as specified in the SOWs. All fees, costs, or expenses for fixed-price projects shall be due and payable in full pursuant to the terms set forth in the applicable SOW. Invoices will be submitted electronically to the following Customer email address: John Doe – youremail@gmail.com

Invoices will be due net 30 days after issued. Any amounts not paid within the time specified shall be subject to finance charges at the maximum amount permitted by law. Customer will pay all costs of collection including finance charges, court costs, plus 15% of such sum as attorney fees if collected by law or by an attorney of law. All deadlines for performance by CDS will be extended by at least the number of days of delay in any payment by Customer.

CDS reserves the right to delay or suspend the Services in the event fees are not timely paid in full when due. Customer's obligation to pay for Services constitutes an independent duty, and as such, Customer agrees not to make any set-offs against amounts owed to CDS.

Payment not received within the terms stated on the invoice, SOW or Change Order ("CO, COs"), shall be subject to finance charges. Invoices will be rendered on a monthly or periodic basis and are due as stated in the SOW(s).

If payments are not received promptly, CDS reserves the right to stop work on all active projects until Customer's accounts are brought current. Customer shall pay all federal and state sales, use, excise, value-added or other taxes levied on the grant of the license, any services provided, or Customer's use of the Product.

In the event that Customer: a) ceases to do business in the normal course, becomes or is declared insolvent or bankrupt, is the subject of any proceeding relating to liquidation or insolvency that is not dismissed within sixty (60) days, or makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or b) CDS reasonably determines that Customer's financial condition is of such a nature that Customer may not be capable of meeting its obligations under this Agreement, then CDS shall have the right to demand and receive immediate payment in full of any undisputed outstanding invoice (as any first position secured creditor), expect payment in advance for any future work to be performed by CDS under this Agreement, and/or terminate this Agreement.

15. Approvals and Change Orders

CDS's design process is iterative, in discrete phases, such that design of subsequent work product requires building upon prior, approved work product. Each work phase requires signoff by the Customer's designated point of contact ("Customer Project Manager").

Changes to design or development effort in earlier phases made after signoff may affect the project scope and/or timeline and result in additional charges. CDS reserves the right to deliver COs and assess supplemental charges in the event of changes in earlier phases after signoff. CDS also reserves the right to change the project timeline and renegotiate Service and Product fees in the event of changes in earlier phases after signoff. Unless otherwise stated, all signoffs and direction must come directly from Customer's Project Manager.

16. Term

This Agreement shall continue until either party provides the other party with written notification of termination at least thirty (30) days prior notice. On the effective date of termination, which is at least thirty (30) days from the receipt of notice, CDS will invoice Customer for all work and deliverables projected by the project plan or project charter document through the effective date of termination.

This invoice will be due and payable upon receipt. Any prices quoted in this Agreement (or SOWs) shall only be binding for a term of three (3) months unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties.

CDS reserves the right to renegotiate prices for scope changes, new or additional work beyond the scope, or if three (3) months has passed between the negotiation of the prices and the commencement of work.

17. Independent Parties

CDS shall be an independent contractor of Customer and shall have the right to control and direct the manner and/or means of its performance and delivery of Services and Products under this Agreement.

This Agreement shall not be construed so as to create any partnership, joint venture, employer-employee, principal-agent or other relationship between the parties hereto other than an independent contractor relationship. Neither party shall be liable for the collection of any governmental taxes, duties or levies for the other party's employees.

The terms and conditions in this Agreement supersede all prior agreements (written or verbal) between the parties. If the terms of this Agreement conflict with the terms of other documents, then the terms of this Agreement will take precedence, except for those terms in Statements of Work.

The parties may agree to different terms on a project-by-project basis, or if there are conflicting terms, by signing an Addendum to Exhibit A (eg. "Addendum-1"). Only in that case will conflicting terms take precedence over those found in this Agreement.

Customer's acknowledgement, payment to CDS, allowance of commencement of performance by CDS, or acceptance of deliverables under this Agreement or related SOWs constitutes Customer's unqualified acceptance of this Agreement and the terms of any related SOWs or COs.

Obligations of confidentiality, intellectual property rights and non-solicitation shall survive termination of this Agreement. This Agreement, consisting of these terms and conditions, the terms and conditions in any SOWs, or COs, incorporated herein by this by reference, constitute the entire agreement of the parties on the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings. Any amendment to this Agreement will be in writing and must be signed by both parties.

By signing this agreement, both You and CDS are acknowledging we have read, understood, and agree to the terms of this Agreement.

Let's get crackin!
